

on the toilet

episode #7

Let's talk about the mascot of go

It's name is Go gopher and was designed by Renée French. Go gopher refers to the gopher species. They are commonly known for their extensive tunneling activities.

You might be familiar with another representant of this species from Winnie the Pooh. Although they seem different, careful observer can spot similarities.

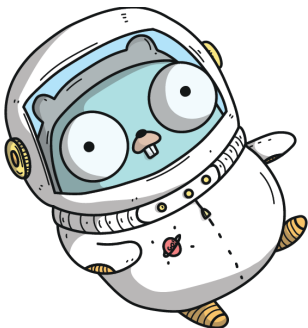

Pic. 1 Go gopher

Pic. 2 Disney™ gopher

First obvious similarity is it's two teeth, another one would black nose and surely bright eyesight.

Gophers come in different shapes and themes. Let's look at couple of examples:

Pic. 3 Gopher cosmonaut

Pic. 4 Gopher golfer

Pic. 5 Gopher dandy

Bathroom magazine with golang trivia, examples and patterns

Inspired by original Google's "Testing on the Toilet"

Browse previous episodes: <https://github.com/jedruniu/goot>

